VIGOROUS REPLY BY ROOSEVELT

President Answers the Telegram Sent by Bryan.

CONDEMNS GOVERNOR HASKELL

Chief Executive Argues That the Action of the Oklahoma Official in Stopping Legal Proceedings Against the Prairie State Oil and Gas Company Demonstrates He Was Controlled by the Great Oil Monopoly.

Washington, Sept. 24.—President Roosevelt, following upon a prolonged conference with members of the cabinet at the White House, prepared and gave out his reply to William J. Bryan, the Democratic candidate, relative to W. R. Hearst's charges that Governor Haskell, treasurer of the Democratic campaign committee, had represented Standard Oil interests both in Ohio and Oklahoma. Mr. Bryan had demanded proof of the charges, promising that in the event of their substantiation Governor Haskell would be eliminated from the campaign.

Dismissing the Ohio case, which involved an allegation of attempted bribery, with the explanation that he had made no direct charge against Governor Haskell as regards that particular instance President Roosevelt takes up the matter of the Prairie State Oil and Gas company and argues that Governor Haskell's action in stopping legal proceedings begun by the attorney general of Oklahoma demonstrates conclusively that he was controlled by the great corporation to which the Oklahoma company was subsidiary.

Severely Arraigns Haskell.

After contrasting Mr. Bryan's defense of Governor Haskell as against Judge Taft's repudiation of Foraker in connection with the Hearst charges against the Ohio senator the president proceeds to declare that Governor Haskell's "utter unfitness for association with any man anxious to appeal to the American people on a moral issue has been abundantly shown by other acts of his as governor of Oklahoma." The president condemns Governor Haskell's conduct in connection with various matters as disgraceful and scandalous and calls special attention to what he describes as "prostituting to base purposes the state university." This fresh charge against the governor rests on an article in the Outlook, from which the president quotes and which, he says, forms the conclusion that Governor Haskell is unworthy of any position in public life.

The latter portion of Mr. Roosevelt's deliverance is devoted to criticism of Mr. Bryan's plan for regulating the trusts, which he characterizes as a measure that sounds more radical than any advocated by the Republicans, but which in practice would not work. Concluding Mr. Roosevelt declares that no law defying corporation from Mr. Bryan "save what it would suffer from the general paralysis of business, which would follow Democratic success."

Has Anything to Fear

The president spent almost the entire day in setting the letter in shape. An hour was given to making a rough draft of it, which was submitted to Secretary Garfield and Postmaster General Meyer, both of whom made suggestions as to portions of the communication. All of the members of the cabinet now in the city, Secretaries Wilson, Straus, Wright, Metcalf and Garfield and Postmaster General Meyer, met with the president in the cabinet room at the executive offices for a conference on the subject. Two hours more were required to make certain minor changes before Secretary Loeb gave it to the press.

Deeming the reply too long to be sent by wire, the method of communication Mr. Bryan had employed in his challenge to the president, it was forwarded by mail to the Democratic candidate at Lincoln, Neb.

GLASCOCK FOR GOVERNOR

West Virginia Republican Factions Settle Differences.

Charleston, W. Va., Sept. 24.—The bitter feud in the Republican party in West Virginia, following the dual conventions and rival state tickets placed in the field last July, headed respectively by Secretary of State Charles W. Swisher and State Auditor Arnold C. Scherr, was ended when, following the withdrawal of Swisher Monday night, Mr. Scherr and his fellow candidates on the Lincoln Republican ticket agreed to retire in favor of the new candidate of the regular Republicans, William E. Glascock. The other state candidates of the regular faction stand as nominated here last July.

GRAPE GROWERS MEET.

Will Join in Campaign Against Anti-Saloon League.

New York, Sept. 24.—Growers of grapes from grape growing centers of the United States gathered here to cooperate with the American Wine Growers' association in a campaign against the Anti-Saloon league and the Woman's Christian Temperance union, which bodies the grape growers allege threaten serious injury to the industry. Andrea Scarbore of California read a copy of a letter said to have been received from Rev. Charles H. Parkhurst of this city, in which he said he was warmly in sympathy with their attitude in regard to wine as a substitute for whiskey.

Resolutions were passed condemning the "unreasonable" efforts to bring about legislation that would injure the wine industry.

CHOLERA INCREASING.

Invades the Aristocratic Precincts of St. Petersburg.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 24.—Not only has the number of cases of Asiatic cholera increased but the disease has invaded the aristocratic precincts of St. Petersburg. It has even reached the winter palace in which extensive preparations are going on in the expectation that the emperor and empress will spend part of the coming season in the capital. Other cases have been discovered in the palace of Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholasievitch, the Tauride palace and the palace of Prince Alexander Oldenburg, a cousin of the emperor, and the Imperial Opera House.

A number of diplomats and prominent society people have hurried their departure abroad, but the exodus has been checked to a considerable extent by the prospect of being held in quarantine at the frontier.

That a panic prevails among certain classes is illustrated by the fact that many well to do people have ordered their newspapers discontinued during the epidemic.

EXPENSES IN MOROCCO.

Germany Will Not Oppose Claims of France and Spain.

Berlin, Sept. 24.—The terms of Germany's reply to the Franco-Spanish note on Morocco, as published here, show that there is no opposition on the part of the German government to demand that Mulai Hafid give guarantee to carry out the provisions of the Algeiras act and other obligations before his recognition. The note declares that Germany is ready to participate in the measures to obtain from Mulai Hafid a declaration that he will immediately assure the freedom and security of commercial intercourse in Morocco.

Germany will not oppose the demand of France and Spain for the reimbursement of their military expenses in the occupation of Casa Blanca, but at the same time expresses the hope that both these powers in their demands will consider the financial situation of the country. The new sultan, the note continues, must provide properly for the future of Abdel Aziz and his former officials.

HASKELL COMES BACK FORCIBLY

Governor of Oklahoma Flays President Roosevelt.

UNDER A FEDERAL FRANCHISE

Says Prairie Oil Company Got Its Charter From Roosevelt's Secretary of Interior While Oklahoma Was a Territory—President Assumes Oklahomans Grafters Because Territorial Associates Justified That Name.

Guthrie, Okla., Sept. 24.—Governor C. N. Haskell issued a statement to the Associated Press in reply to President Roosevelt's letter to William J. Bryan dealing with four specific charges against Mr. Haskell, namely, that he is subservient to the Standard Oil, that he vetoed a child labor bill, that he dealt extensively in Creek Indian lands and that he had allowed politics to dominate him in the removal of the faculty of the state university and the appointment of others to succeed them.

Governor Haskell took up the four charges as dwelt upon by President Roosevelt in turn, dealing with each in a characteristic manner.

The Prairie Oil and Gas company charges Governor Haskell declared to be a "joke on Roosevelt's stupidity," asserting that he had done nothing which would confer upon the Standard Oil subsidiary company more authority than it already possessed under a franchise granted it by Secretary Hitchcock. The statement, in part, follows:

Thankful for Distinction.

"President Roosevelt's letter is before me and while this is the first time in my life I have been made the subject of a cabinet meeting I am thankful for the distinction and I wish to express my high regard for the office of the president.

"I assert that it is fair for me to assume that if my case was to be dignified by an all day cabinet meeting that beyond question Mr. Hearst and his campaign associate, President Roosevelt, left no stone unturned to blacken my character. That being true they certainly raked Ohio fore and aft concerning the Ohio Standard Oil cases of 1899, and finding absolutely nothing reflecting on me, the president tried to wave his charge of last Monday aside by saying 'he will make no allusion to that.' He drops this subject because his original statement was untruthful and he must know from what he knows and tried to find in Ohio that I spoke the truth when I said that I never in all my life had any interest in connection with nor service for that company.

Starts an Ananias Club.

"I say the president knows now that my statement is true and I regret that he tries to brush it aside without doing me candid justice. Were I to adopt the character of language so commonly used by the president I would spell it in fewer letters than 'falsehood.'

"President Roosevelt comes to Oklahoma and finds a substitute for his Ohio failure. Does he, in the case of the state against the Prairie Oil and Gas company, which he complains I compelled to be dismissed?

"Yes, I did have it dismissed and I charge that the political allies, Hearst and Roosevelt, both know that I acted properly.

"First, the Prairie Oil company got its franchise in our state, not from me, but from Roosevelt's secretary of interior long before statehood began and had its main line built and operating and congress in our statehood bill was careful to declare that our new state when organized must respect all such vested rights and existing franchises. That was all I did and the federal courts stood ready to call me down if I violated the Roosevelt territorial franchises.

Federal Franchise Granted.

"Now, Mr. President, why did your secretary of interior grant what you knew to be a Standard Oil pipe line franchise in our then helpless territory and fasten it on our new state by a permanent statehood bill? Will Mr. Hearst or the president please answer? I will also remind the president that the company tried to enlarge its rights so as to include a gas as well as an oil privilege. This I defeated and even last April, Mr. President, your secretary of interior tried to help the Standard Oil gas privileges against my protest by actually granting them a franchise to lay an interstate gas line also. I notified the secretary that with statehood your days of giving valuable franchises in our state had passed and I would resist laying the pipe line only after you yielded and cancelled your unfair act.

"The president comes to the local affairs of our state and assails me for vetoing a child labor bill. True, I did so, simply because the bill went too far and included things not desired by our people. Union labor representatives approved my veto. I hope the president will survive this veto of a local bill and permit us to run our local affairs.

Never a prettier line of Misses' and Children's Coats than is now being shown at "Michael's"

Removal of Professors.

"The president complains that we removed certain professors from our state university, our three state normal schools and preparatory school in violation of civil service rules. That is, the president in his usual impetuosity and reckless disregard of other things, misstates the facts. Less than one-fifth of the faculties are changed. All changes were for good cause other than politics and done by boards of regents and not by the governor.

"The president complains that there are several suits pending against me to reclaim Creek Indian land. The president should have gone farther and said that I was not a dealer in Indian land and only came in as a subsequent purchaser and only incidentally a party without personal interest at all and especially he should have said that it is quite apparent that those who are being sued in those land cases appear to be and apparently are, the victims of political chicanery which the president can better explain than I.

"In short, the president and Mr. Hearst picked the wrong man and are now driven into ward politics rather than surrender like men.

Assumes Oklahomans Are Grafters.

"The president assumes that all Oklahomans are grafters just because his territorial associates justified that name; that all ex-railroad contractors are bad just because Paul Morton needed his protecting arm; that we all in Oklahoma violate the civil service law just because Mr. Roosevelt removed the best United States marshal we ever had, the only reason being that he voted for a good Democrat instead of a bad Republican, and then the president appointed his cousin to fill the vacancy.

"Knowing all these things, the president must pardon us for thus taking issue with the occupant of the high office we all respect. Let us hope that in the future he will appreciate and preserve its dignity and not try to reflect upon the character of a humble citizen. We fail to concede his false position when he knows it is false."

Three Finlanders Killed.

Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 24.—A report from Stanley states that three Finlanders were killed by gas in a well they were digging on the farm of a man named Erickson, eight miles from that place. In digging they struck natural gas and were immediately overcome by it. Stanley is on the Canadian Northern railway twenty miles from Port Arthur.

Michigan Village Burning.

Standish, Mich., Sept. 24.—Two residences and a schoolhouse have been burned by forest fires at the village of Crump and Mrs. J. Bartley is thought to have been burned to death. Volunteers from surrounding towns are assisting the people of Crump in fighting the fires, but it is feared that the village is doomed.

REPLIES TO QUESTIONS.

Samuel Gompers Complies With Court's Instruction.

Washington, Sept. 24.—Complying with the instructions of Chief Justice Clabaugh of the supreme court of the District of Columbia President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor made reply to questions of Attorney Davenport, for the prosecution, concerning some of the editorial expressions of the current September issue of the American Federationist bearing on the contempt proceedings growing out of the Buck Stove company case against the federation officials. The testimony is being taken before Examiner Harper.

The questions which had been objected to were repeated to Mr. Gompers and he then, but under protest, acknowledged full responsibility for all the editorial utterances of the magazine.

With these admissions obtained Mr. Davenport closed his examination of Mr. Gompers.

DEEP WATERWAY PROJECT

Canal From Lake Michigan to Mississippi River.

Chicago, Sept. 24.—The internal improvement commission of Illinois has completed its plans for a campaign in favor of the construction of a deep waterway from Lake Michigan to the Mississippi river. The commission has sent out 500,000 circulars describing the proposed $20,000,000 undertaking which the voters of the state are to decide on at the November election. By taking advantage of natural falls at four different points it is estimated that 140,000 horsepower could be developed and the sale of this would bring $2,500,000 annual revenue to the state. In ten years, it is estimated, the canal would thus pay for itself. An average depth of fourteen feet is proposed from the end of the present drainage canal at Lockport, Ill., to the Illinois river at Utica, Ill.

FIRE PROTECTION
FOR THE TIE PLANT

Over a Mile of Eight Inch Main
to be Laid in Yards West
of River
ELEVATED TANK TO BE BUILT
Work has Already Commenced
and will be Hurried as Rapidly as Possible

Work has been commenced on a system of fire protection for the tie plant and the yards for the storage of ties in West Brainerd. The plant will consist of over a mile of 8-inch mains, connected with a large elevated steel tank which will furnish pressure. The water will be pumped to the tank from the deep well which was put down when the plant was built. There will be a large number of hydrants provided so that it will be possible to drench any pile of ties in the yard in short order.

There is at times as many as 300,000 ties piled in the yards along the tracks and in constant danger of fire from passing trains, which together with the fact that treated ties are like tinder renders ample fire protection necessary.

How to Get Strong
P. J. Daly, of 1247 W. Congress St., Chicago, tells of a way to become strong. He says: "My mother who is old and very feeble, is deriving so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I that feel it's my duty to tell those who need a tonic and strengthening medicine about it. In my mother's case a marked gain in flesh has resulted, insomnia has been overcome, and she is steadily growing stronger." Electric Bitters quickly remedy stomach, liver and kidney complaints. Y. M. C. A. Membership Campaign
The teams in the Y. M. C. A. membership campaign are again running even; yesterday for a time the blues were in the lead, but this morning they are reported even—each having 53 men to their credit.

This being the case, and the fact that the time for the campaign is now short (as it will close on Saturday night) the men seem to be getting ready for a strong finish.

The red's team at the shops holds the shop honors with 17 while the blues at the shops have only 7. The blues, however, have the up-town honors with a total of 46 as against the reds 33.

L. S. Zakarison still holds first place in individual honors with 15 to his credit, but George Anderson has now bounded into second place with 13, while Matt Rodman has been set back to third place with 12.

The men will all meet at the building tomorrow evening to make ready for the final spurt in a meeting with Secretary Mixsell of Cloquet.

It is the purpose to make a magnificent stock farm of the property as well as a summer home for its owner and improvements this summer have given employment to all the available men in the neighborhood and the pay roll has been about $500 a week. MUCH SMOKE FROM OFF THE RANGE

Heavy East Wind Last Night Brought it so Thick One Could Hardly See

WIND CHANGED AGAIN TODAY

A Shift Toward the South this Forenoon Cleared Atmosphere Somewhat

The man who has a wife who fears fire had a hard time last night. It is dollars to doughnuts she routed him out to hunt for the smoke that crept into the house and caused her to fear that the house was afire.

A heavy northeast wind set in last evening and blew heavily for several hours, driving masses of smoke before it from the forest fires up on the range. The smoke began to make itself felt about 11 o'clock, coming in through the open windows and smelling so strongly that it was little wonder that timid women routed out their partners to seek the cause. The wind continued from the east until morning, at which time the smoke was so thick one could almost cut it. The wind at that time, however, shifted more to the south and by shortly after noon was blowing almost directly from that point of the compass. As a result the smoke cleared away enough so that in the early afternoon the sun could be seen.

There were reports of fires at Cass Lake and south of town, but investigation by THE DISPATCH showed no fires in this section of the country, the rain of Tuesday night, having apparently put out several small fires in Crow Wing county.

TALKS OF STATE SCHOOL

C. M. Huff, Cottage Officer in Illinois State School for Boys, Visits in Brainerd

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Huff, who left for St. Charles, Ill., today after a visit at the home of her brother, H. B. Van Sickle, have charge of one of the cottages in the Illinois state school for boys and Mr. Huff talked very interestingly to a Dispatch reporter today of matters connected with the school.

There are nine cottages in the school, each of which houses 40 boys and over each of which are a man and his wife who have charge, the work being done by the boys. Mr. Huff is also editor and manager of the monthly paper issued by the school, the work being done under his instruction. He is also photographer for the school taking views which are used in the magazine and in the reports, etc., of the school.

He states that the 400 boys not only do practically all the work on the farm of 1000 acres, but they make their own clothes, mend their own shoes, do the work in the cottages, etc. They have foot ball and base ball teams in each cottage and a school team which plays outside teams. Mr. Huff says both he and Mrs. Huff like the work very well although there is considerable responsibility and mental strain in caring for 40 boys, most of whom have had no bringing up at all.

Two Merry Tramps
"Two Merry Tramps" that everlasting singing, ringing musical tom-foolery which will be presented at the opera house tonight contains more original singing numbers, more wit and humor more stunning costumes than is found in any ten of the so-called musical comedies.

Too Proud to Beg

Of the melodramas that have visited this city the present season, none can compare so favorably with that of Lincoln J. Carter's great detective melodrama, "Too Proud to Beg" which is scheduled to be at the opera house, Sept. 26. This play is said to embody in every detail the true conception of melodramatic requirements, telling a story of unusual interest and containing a plot consistently honest and absorbing. Throughout the piece, interest is kept even on the flow and the dialogue and situations are watched with breathless interest from start to finish until the clever plot is finally revealed.

Just Out of College

One continual round of fun and laughter is promised those who will witness George Ade's comedy, "Just Out of College," at the opera house on Sept. 28. The piece fairly reeks in the types of odd humanity that have made Ade's name a household word. There is not an unclean or undesirable line; nothing but humor, wit and brilliant repartee; the same as has been evident in all plays written by Mr. Ade.

A Palatial Pigsty.
The Pennsylvania legislature at the last session appropriated $6,000 for a "sanitary pigsty" at the Danville State Hospital For the Insane. This palace for pigs, which is now in process of construction, will be heated by steam, lighted by electricity, and the occupants will be served with "cooked food." They will not be allowed to wallow in the mire like common hogs, because there will be no mire, says the Utica Press. FIRE PROTECTION
FOR THE TIE PLANT

Over a Mile of Eight Inch Main
to be Laid in Yards West
of River

ELEVATED TANK TO BE BUILT

Work has Already Commenced
and will be Hurried as Rapidly as Possible

Work has been commenced on a system of fire protection for the tie plant and the yards for the storage of ties in West Brainerd. The plant will consist of over a mile of 8-inch mains, connected with a large elevated steel tank which will furnish pressure. The water will be pumped to the tank from the deep well which was put down when the plant was built. There will be a large number of hydrants provided so that it will be possible to drench any pile of ties in the yard in short order.

There is at times as many as 300,000 ties piled in the yards along the tracks and in constant danger of fire from passing trains, which together with the fact that treated ties are like tinder renders ample fire protection necessary.

Y. M. C. A. Membership Campaign

The teams in the Y. M. C. A. membership campaign are again running even; yesterday for a time the blues were in the lead, but this morning they are reported even--each having 53 men to their credit.

This being the case, and the fact that the time for the campaign is now short (as it will close on Saturday night) the men seem to be getting ready for a strong finish.

The red's team at the shops holds the shop honors with 17 while the blues at the shops have only 7. The blues, however, have the up-town honors with a total of 46 as against the reds 33.

L. S. Zakariason still holds first place in individual honors with 15 to his credit, but George Anderson has now bounded into second place with 13, while Matt Rodman has been set back to third place with 12.

The men will all meet at the building tomorrow evening to make ready for the final spurt in a meeting with Secretary Mixsell of Cloquet.

MUCH SMOKE FROM OFF THE RANGE

Heavy East Wind Last Night Brought it so Thick One Could Hardly See

WIND CHANGED AGAIN TODAY

A Shift Toward the South this Forenoon Cleared Atmosphere Somewhat

The man who has a wife who fears fire had a hard time last night. It is dollars to doughnuts she routed him out to hunt for the smoke that crept into the house and caused her to fear that the house was afire.

A heavy northeast wind set in last evening and blew heavily for several hours, driving masses of smoke before it from the forest fires up on the range. The smoke began to make itself felt about 11 o'clock, coming in through the open windows and smelling so strongly that it was little wonder that timid women routed out their partners to seek the cause. The wind continued from the east until morning, at which time the smoke was so thick one could almost cut it. The wind at that time, however, shifted more to the south and by shortly after noon was blowing almost directly from that point of the compass. As a result the smoke cleared away enough so that in the early afternoon the sun could be seen.

There were reports of fires at Cass Lake and south of town, but investigation by THE DISPATCH showed no fires in this section of the country, the rain of Tuesday night, having apparently put out several small fires in Crow Wing county.

J. F. MURPHY & CO.

I feel that the country is indeed to be congratulated upon the nomination of Mr. Taft. I have known him intimately for many years and I have a peculiar feeling for him, because throughout that time he worked for the same object, with the same purposes and ideals.

I do not believe there could be found in all the country a man so well fitted to be President.

He is not only absolutely fearless, absolutely disinterested and upright, but he has the widest acquaintance with the nation's needs, without and within, and the broadest sympathies with all our citizens.

He would be as emphatically a President of the plain people as Lincoln, yet not Lincoln himself would be freer from the least taint of demagoguery, the least tendency to arouse or appeal to class hatred of any kind.

He has a peculiar and intimate knowledge of and sympathy with the needs of all our people—of the farmer, of the wage earner, of the business man, of the property owner.

No matter what a man's occupation or social position, no matter what his creed, his color, or the section of the country from which he comes, if he is an honest, hard working man who tries to do his duty toward his neighbor and toward the country, he can rest assured that he will have in Mr. Taft the most upright of representatives and the most fearless of champions.

Mr. Taft stands against privileges and he stands pre-eminently for the broad principles of American citizenship which lie at the foundation of our national well being.

BOUTELL ON BRYAN.

Is His "Shall the People Rule?" Simply "A Local Issue?"

Congressman Henry Sherman Boutell of Chicago, commenting on Mr. Bryan's speech in Iowa, says:

Mr. Bryan's question, "Shall the people rule?" implies that somewhere in this country the people do not rule. The only States where the people do not rule are the States that are expected to give overwhelming majorities for the Democratic ticket. Perhaps Mr. Bryan thinks that his question is purely "a local issue." If he is sincere, I challenge him to make a speech in Vicksburg, Miss., on "Government by the People." Let him repeat one of his famous anti-imperialist speeches, simply changing three words, substituting "Mississippi" for "Philippines" and "black brothers" for "brown brothers." Let him suggest that we have as chairman of his meeting John Sharp Williams, leader of the Democrats in Congress, and as vice-chairmen the other members of the Congressional delegation from Mississippi.

And after he has made his speech in Vicksburg, if he shall have escaped the rule of the people in that community, I dare Mr. Bryan to repeat his oration on popular government in Charleston, S. C., with Senator Tillman as chairman of his meeting. Mr. Bryan's sentiments have a purely geographical sincerity. His epigrams and startling conclusions are especially designed to meet local demands. Of this nature are all his views on tariff and taxation.

Mr. Bryan's proposition that every time a trust is formed a tariff schedule should be repealed, and every time a trust is dissolved a new duty should be added, is too funny even for comic opera.

If on March 4 next Mr. Bryan should become President, with a Democratic Congress in both houses, and should actually place upon the statute books the financial and economic vagaries delivered by him in his speech of last Friday, it would plunge the nation into bankruptcy and bring on industrial chaos. If he should begin by repealing the duty on sugar to punish the sugar trust, he would upset the national finances by losing $60,000,000 a year in revenues, and would stir up a revolution in Louisiana, Utah, Colorado and Michigan. Then, if he should repeal the duty on cotton goods, because some hustling manufacturers of New England or the Carolinas were dumping goods in China in rivalry with England and Germany, he would divert other millions from the treasury and invite still further industrial ruin.

But, of course, Mr. Bryan would do none of these things, any more than he will invade the solid South and summon the cohorts of Democracy to the defence of the Constitution with the battle cry "Shall the People Rule?" Mr. Bryan simply does not mean what he says. What he utters with Chaddianian unctious in the North he repudiates with Pecksniffian duplicity in the South.

Business Men Honest.

The business men of our community as a whole are honest and their methods are sound. The President has never said otherwise. Indeed, it is chiefly in the interest of the great body of honest business men that he has made his fight for lawful business methods.—Hon. Wm. H. Taft, to Merchants and Manufacturers' Association, Boston, Mass.

Gratitude to McKinley.

The highest claim of William McKinley is that, in spite of the abuse and contumely that was heaped upon his head for this policy, he placed our country in the forefront of nations as a civilizer and uplifter of unfortunate peoples.—Hon. Wm. H. Taft, at Cleveland, Ohio.

ENEMY OF TARIFF.

Labor World Sees Danger in Bryan Plan of Tariff for Revenue Only.

(From the Labor World.)

Workingmen and producers generally should not delude themselves with the belief that, if Mr. Bryan shall be elected President, his plans for revision of the tariff will present no menace to the country. Mr. Bryan is the professed enemy of the tariff system. He would impose duties, if at all, for revenue purposes only. On articles competing with what he chooses to call trust-made goods he would have no duty at all. Any apparent deficit in import duties arising from revised schedules he estimates would be more than made up by increased imports. Of course, his hope is to strike at the great protection States, which happen to be Republican in politics, like Pennsylvania, New York, Ohio, Illinois, Indiana, West Virginia, etc. It does not seem to matter to him that every dollar's worth of foreign goods in the competitive class coming into the United States on a revenue or free trade basis necessarily by so much reduces the demand for home goods, thus displacing just that much American labor. What he wants to do is to rebuke and avenge himself upon protected manufacturers who do not agree with him in politics and who will have none of him at the polls, says an exchange.

But while Mr. Bryan is gunning for protected industries and Republican States, once his proposed tariff law should be in force it would fall alike upon all sections of the country, the only differences between one State and another being in the degree of hardship imposed.

We hear of workingmen saying that this time they intend to vote for Mr. Bryan, because for the past ten months we have had hard times. But what good will that do? How is a tariff for revenue, ignoring the protection idea altogether, going to open the shops and mills? How will the election of Senators by direct vote start the wheels of industry? Or the publication of campaign contributions? Or the further harassment of the railroads? Or the reorganization of the House, so that the Speaker may be powerless? Why open this country now to the markets of the world when we have not sufficient demand to consume what we ourselves manufacture? Under Republican rule we have just had ten years of unparalleled prosperity. Under Democratic administrations we have never had prosperity for any period, long or short.

Can't Disaffect the Farmers.

The failure of Bryan's desperate attempts to curry favor with the farmers is illustrated by the manner in which he was received at Crookston, Minn. According to Congressman Halvor Stevenson the event went off as follows: "Bryan's speech at Crookston was a great disappointment. He actually lost ground there for Democracy. Thousands of people were there to hear him, and waited till ten o'clock in the evening before he appeared. The address was a narrow appeal to farmers, a harangue, trying to prejudice them against Republicanism. It didn't take at all. Only once was there the slightest symptom of applause. He spoke to a silent, disappointed audience."

Campaign of Education.

In the great battle of 1896 the Republican party again stood for the maintenance of the integrity of the nation. The fight was against odds produced by a great industrial depression, and against the most sophisticated arguments. The Republican party maintained a campaign of education among the wage-earners and the farmers, which ultimately led to the complete defeat of this second financial heresy which has threatened the integrity of our business structure.—Hon. Wm. H. Taft, at Kansas City, Mo.

TAFT BEGINS CAMPAIGN TOUR

Republican Nominee Speaks at Brook, Ind., and Then at Chicago, Two Addresses Being Made at the Latter Place—Deals Particularly With Decisions in Labor Questions as Rendered by Him When He Was Judge.

Columbus, O., Sept. 24.—Twelve speeches to enormous crowds marked the second entry of William J. Bryan, Democratic candidate for president, into Ohio during the present campaign. His concluding speech was made here to an overflow crowd of 20,000 persons, while just previously he had addressed the largest audience that ever had assembled in Memorial hall. The seating capacity is 6,000, but this was increased by 2,000 others who were satisfied to stand. Mr. Bryan's appearance on the platform created a scene of the wildest enthusiasm, which took some time to die out, but the demonstration was repeated when he was formally introduced by Colonel James Kilbourne. While Mr. Bryan was speaking Judge Harmon, the present Democratic candidate for governor of the state, John J. Lentz and others, were addressing the crowd outside.

In none of his remarks did Mr. Bryan touch on the bribery charge against Governor Haskell.

During the day in this city the Democratic candidate for president spoke to 4,000 precinct committeemen, the number being so large that the hall was emptied in order to accommodate those who had not heard him talk on organization. These meetings were followed by addresses to the Commercial Travelers' league on the trusts and to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen. His remarks were on the issues of the campaign generally, but his speech to the representatives of the brotherhood was devoted exclusively to the labor question and more particularly the plank in the Democratic platform demanding a trial by jury in cases of indirect contempt.

Chicago, Sept. 24.—William H. Taft, Republican candidate for president, in two addresses here, opened what his leaders declared would be from now on an aggressive campaign. Speaking before the Railway Men's Independence Taft club Mr. Taft paid his respects to union labor, dealing particularly with decisions in labor questions as rendered by him when he was judge.

Arriving here from Cincinnati, after having stopped at George Ade's farm at Brook, Ind., the Republican candidate went immediately to the Auditorium Annex and, after a short conference at dinner with Chairman Hitchcock, drove in an automobile to Orchestra hall on the lake front. A large crowd forming an overflow meeting surrounded him and, standing in his automobile, Mr. Taft made his first, an informal, address. He said he believed that no judge had ever had the interest of the laboring man at heart more than he had now and had had when judge. He was proud to say that he frequently had been called in consultation with President Roosevelt on labor matters and that his own and the president's views were in accord.

He referred to Mr. Bryan and Samuel Gompers as "among those people who are always full of enthusiasm for union labor when they are running for office, but," continued Mr. Taft, "you've got to get men like Theodore Roosevelt when you want them to do things."

That Mr. Taft had not suffered from the fatigues of the day was shown when, after entering the hall and being introduced by Frank Larrabee, chairman of the meeting, he announced his willingness to shake hands after the speechmaking with each of the 3,000 people who were able to gain admission. Most of his auditors were railway men.

I feel that the country is indeed to be congratulated upon the nomination of Mr. Taft. I have known him intimately for many years and I have a peculiar feeling for him, because throughout that time he worked for the same object, with the same purposes and ideals.

I do not believe there could be found in all the country a man so well fitted to be President.

He is not only absolutely fearless, absolutely disinterested and upright, but he has the widest acquaintance with the nation's needs, without and within, and the broadest sympathies with all our citizens.

He would be as emphatically a President of the plain people as Lincoln, yet not Lincoln himself would be freer from the least taint of demagoguery, the least tendency to arouse or appeal to class hatred of any kind.

He has a peculiar and intimate knowledge of and sympathy with the needs of all our people—the farmer, of the wage earner, of the business man, of the property owner.

No matter what a man's occupation or social position, no matter what his creed, his color, or the section of the country from which he comes, if he is an honest, hard working man who tries to do his duty toward his neighbor and toward the country, he can rest assured that he will have in Mr. Taft the most upright of representatives and the most fearless of champions.

Mr. Taft stands against privileges and he stands pre-eminently for the broad principles of American citizenship which lie at the foundation of our national well being.

BOUTELL ON BRYAN.

In His "Shall the People Rule?" Simply "A Local Issue?"

Congressman Henry Sherman Boutell of Chicago, commenting on Mr. Bryan's speech in Iowa, says:

Mr. Bryan's question, "Shall the people rule?" implies that somewhere in this country the people do not rule. The only States where the people do not rule are the States that are expected to give overwhelming majorities for the Democratic ticket. Perhaps Mr. Bryan thinks that his question is purely "a local issue." If he is sincere, I challenge him to make a speech in Vicksburg, Miss., on "Government by the People." Let him repeat one of his famous anti-imperialist speeches, simply changing three words, substituting "Mississippi" for "Philippines" and "black brothers" for "brown brothers." Let him suggest that we have as chairman of his meeting John Sharp Williams, leader of the Democrats in Congress, and as vice-chairmen the other members of the Congressional delegation from Mississippi.

C., with Senator Tillman as chairman of his meeting. Mr. Bryan's sentiments have a purely geographical sincerity. His epigrams and startling conundrums are especially designed to meet local demands. Of this nature are all his views on tariff and taxation.

Mr. Bryan's proposition that every time a trust is formed a tariff schedule should be repealed, and every time a trust is dissolved a new duty should be added, is too funny even for comic opera.
